

We expect all our pupils to wear school uniform and believe it gives our school a smart appearance whilst allowing for a certain amount of individuality. We expect parents to support the school in this matter.

Pupils who arrive for school without the appropriate uniform will be provided with school uniform for the day.

The basic colour of our uniform is navy and white as a secondary colour (for shirts and blouses).

Cold weather uniform	Warm weather uniform (optional)
Navy sweatshirt with RLJS logo or plain navy sweatshirt/cardigan/jumper Year 6 – School Blazer	Navy sweatshirt with RLJS logo or plain navy sweatshirt/cardigan/jumper Year 6 – School Blazer
Black trousers	Navy blue checked dress
White shirt and school tie	White shirt and school tie
Black skirt or pinafore, of a sensible length	Plain black tailored shorts: Please note: sports shorts may not be worn as part of every day school uniform
Plain navy or white socks	Plain navy or white socks
Warm winter coat – any colour	Rainmac – any colour / summer hat – no inappropriate logos
Plain black, flat, sensible shoes Please note: trainers and / or canvas shoes are not acceptable – pupils will be required to change their footwear if they wear trainers to school.	Plain black, flat, sensible shoes – as per cold weather uniform Sensible strong sandals – no flip flops or footwear that could cause a child to trip.

Please remember that we do not wear the following at Race Leys Junior School

Logos other than RLJS logo	Leggings
Denim clothing	Footwear other than listed above
Track suits other than for PE / games	Make up & nail varnish
Trainers and canvas shoes
Jewellery & body piercings other than 1 small stud per ear and / or a modest wrist watch Please note: valuable items of jewellery must not be worn to school	Hair braids, colourings, excessive hair styling including lines unless integral to a child's cultural identity

If pupils are not appropriately dressed for school that pupil will be reminded of our uniform guidelines and a letter may be sent home. If a child is not wearing appropriate footwear they will be asked to change into their PE pumps or be provided with a pair of black pumps to wear for the day. In extreme cases we will contact parents and ask them to collect their child and return them appropriately dressed, or bring suitable clothing.

Updated – April 2020